ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My warmest gratitude goes to Almighty Allah for the gift of life and for sustaining me throughout my study. I wish to acknowledge the help I received from many people, who in diverse way made it possible for me to have a strength in writing this dissertation. Intellectually, a greatest gratitude is owed to all the lectures at the Faculty of Education and Human Development, Sultan Idris Education University - Malaysia for their noble idea and motivation towards my academic performance. I specifically place my gratitude to Dr. Muhammed Yusuf, my supervisor, whose criticism contributed tremendously to the improvement of this dissertation, for this, I will be eternally grateful.

I am equally grateful to my parents, En Mohd Noh Bilal and Pn Rosnani Ibrahim for their support and understanding, as well my family members, my brothers and sisters that always give me strength and advice. I would like to express my eternal appreciation to my beloved wife, Pn Rizaria Mohd Yusop and my dearest son, Muhammad Harraz for never ending support, motivation and encouragement and being the backbone of my study.

Finally, I would like to thank all my fellow friends who had always supported me all the way, directly or indirectly. Your criticism, advice and support helped me throughout this academic exploration. I would not have been able to finish this dissertation without your continuous love and encouragement.
